

An optional vegetarian curry on the Saturday!

In March of this year, I had the pleasure of attending a vegetarian curry cooking course with the lovely Chanchal and her family. It was a great experience and later that day I had the brainwave that they could provide food at the Drawing Circus event.

So I asked, and they said yes though sadly they can only do it on the Saturday.

Chanchal raises a lot of money for communities in India. All of the proceeds from this meal will go to these groups.

The Menu is as follows:

- Mung bean curry
- Rice
- Bombay potatoes
- Sambaaro (vegetable side dish)
- Samosas
- Coriander and mint sauce (dip)
- Poppadum
- Sweet

A contribution of £10 per meal is welcomed. Please bring cash on day.

We need to know how many to cater for and if there is enough interest.

Please email james@orts.co.uk ASAP if you are interested and certainly by the 8th July.

Thank you!
